

EECC FEBRUARY 2018 NEWSLETTER

Happy February! The shortest month of the year has a long list of worthwhile things to remember.

EECC is scheduled to receive our annual free vision screening by Prevent Blindness of North Carolina on Tuesday, February 6, beginning at 9:00 am.

The only certainty about unpredictable, inclement winter weather is that should it occur, EECC follows Winston-Salem/ Forsyth County Schools on the first day of closings or delays. After that first day, Lisa Nichols, EECC Director, determines if/when EECC will open. Information about EECC closings can be found on WXII under closings. Aaron Willey, PALS President, generally sends out emails with pertinent weather-related updates. Safety for our EECC children is always out first concern.

On Tuesday, February 13, 2018, from 5:30 pm – 7:00 pm there will be a Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper in the fellowship hall, sponsored by the Lutheran Church of the Epiphany Youth. This is a Church Youth Fund Raising event at which the only cost is a love offering. Lisa Nichols herself will be in the kitchen, preparing pancakes for all the fine people who dine with us! EECC children and their families are invited to join us for a wonderful pancake feast! Please let your friends and other family members know of this opportunity for food and fellowship. Who among us doesn't love pancakes – especially on a school night when you don't have to cook? RSVP Sign-Up Sheets will be in classrooms on February 5, 2018.

Parent/Teacher Conferences are underway and will be held through February 9, 2018. Please make sure you schedule a meeting with your child's teacher if you have not already done so. This is an important part of your child's education and experience here at EECC. Thank you for your time and dedication.

Valentine's Day is already in our hearts and will arrive in just a few weeks. We will send out more information soon about how we can celebrate this sweet holiday. Parents, we welcome your ideas and contributions!

There is a great opportunity for women to be part of an engaging Book Study at Epiphany Church during Lent, February 21 – March 21, 2018, from 5:30 pm – 6:15 pm. Childcare is provided FREE by EECC staff! The book we will read is She's Still There: Rescuing the Girl in You by Chrystal Evans Hurst, available at Barnes & Noble or on Amazon. After the book study, please stay for the Lenten dinner at 6:15 pm and the Lenten service at 7:00 pm.
